

Aboriginal Studies 30

Aboriginal Studies 30 is offered as an individualized learning course at the Learning Centres. The teacher is accessible for support via email or by booking an appointment (phone, virtual meeting, in person) during our hours of operation. Students will complete the course by working through modules. Modules are comprised of lessons which include various resources that allow the student to actively engage in the learning process. Course content and resources are provided online through the course website. Students require their unique @edu.sturgeon.ab.ca account for course completion.

Progression Through Course Sequences

Aboriginal Studies 10 and 20 are requirements for Aboriginal Studies 30.

There are no prerequisites for mature students. A mature student, for Alberta High School Diploma purposes, is one who as of September 1 of the current school year, is 19 years of age or older; or the holder of a previously-awarded high school diploma from the province of Alberta; or an equivalent high school diploma from a jurisdiction acceptable to the Minister.

Unit Topics and Evaluation

Aboriginal Studies 30 has 7 units.

Unit 1	Inherent Rights
Unit 2	Traditional Governance and Colonization
Unit 3	Aboriginal Rights and Self-Government
Unit 4	Land Claims
Unit 5	In Canadian Society
Unit 6	Communities Today
Unit 7	World Issues

A schedule of module due dates will be set up with your teacher as part of your registration. Timelines vary from student to student, depending on when you start the course and how well you grasp the material presented. Keep in mind that in a typical high school classroom, students receive approximately 80 minutes of class time everyday for an entire semester.

There are no exams in this course. Each module has equal weighting towards your grade.

Marks can be viewed on PowerSchool. Pay attention to comments included with your marks. This could mean there are things that your teacher would like to review with you before finalizing the mark on the assignment. Take the time to come see your teacher and discuss what must be completed or redone. Note: due to course deadlines, corrections will need to be completed in a timely manner as determined by you and your teacher.
